THREW RED PEPPER

Police Judge Wm. H. Leuders, of Cincinnati, Almost Blinded by an Angry Woman.

BECAME ENRAGED OVER DECISION

The Sensational Scene Took Place in the Judge's Private Office on Walnut Street.

The Victim Was Hurried to a Private Hospital Where It Was Said His Eyesight Would Be Preserved—Will Not Prosecute.

Cincinnati, May 16.—Displeased over the outcome of a case in police court early Friday, Mrs. A. E. Leland, whose place of residence is unknown to the police, tried to blind Judge William H. Leuders by throwing cayenne pepper into his eyes. The assault occurred on the stairway of the building at 429 Walnut street, just outside the law office of Leuders & McCabe. It is believed that the woman must have thrown at least a half pound of the pepper into the face of the jurist, on the floor near by and into the faces of Oscar Keidel, an office boy employed by the law firm, and into the face of Robert Grear, a colored porter, who is employed by Theodore Foucar, a saloonkeeper. Mrs. Leland had been in police court Friday morning as a prosecuting witness. She was prosecuting Mounted Officer Ogden, of the local force, on a charge of assault and battery. Judge Hiram Rullison was the attorney for the woman and assisted Police Prosecutor Holmes in the case.

The testimony showed that the woman had thrown stones at the officer and had acted otherwise in such a way that the court held that Officer Ogden was justified in any action of a forcible nature that he may have taken toward her. The officer was acquitted. After the trial in police court was over the woman met Officer Ogden in the city hall corridor and tried to assault him with her umbrella. For this offense she was not arrested, but was allowed to go with a warning.

She left the city hall crying vengeance against Officer Ogden and Judge Leuders. After leaving the city building the woman evidently purchased a large quantity of cayenne pepper. She went to the office of Leuders & McCabe, and remained there until Judge Leuders made his appearance in the afternoon. She appeared calm and did not attract any attention from the judge's aged father, John H. Leuders, and Oscar Keidel, the office boy, who were in the office. "Bob" Grear, a colored porter, was cleaning the brass railing in the stairway, when Judge Leuders started to ascend the stairway leading to his office. When the judge had almost reached the top of the stairway, the woman took a package from the folds of her dress and with deliberate calmness, said:

"Here, Judge Leuders."

The judge looked up and the woman threw the pepper into his face with all her might, completely blinding the unsuspecting jurist. The pepper also went past Judge Leuders and went into the face of the colored porter. Oscar Keidel rushed into the hallway and the woman threw the remaining pepper in the paper package in his face.

"Oh, my —!" exclaimed Judge Leuders, as he clasped his hands over his eyes.

"Now I'm even with you," said the angry woman. The screams of the judge and colored porter attracted the attention of Mrs. Theodore Foucar and the members of her household, and they ran down from the third floor. The father of Judge Leuders ran into the hallway and grabbed the woman, who tried to maim his distinguished son. By this time Mr. Foucar had dashed up the stairway and a large crowd had congregated. Special Policeman Tom Neely ran up the stairway and the pepper filled the air to such an extent that he could scarcely make his way to the top. Officer Herman Luechtenberg had a similar experience. The officers took charge of the woman who showed fight and was shoved through a glass partition near by before she could be quieted. A cab was hastily summoned and Judge Leuders and his office boy, Oscar Keidel, were taken to Dr. Holmes' hospital.

The woman was taken to police headquarters on a charge of assault to maim. Judge Leuders says he will not prosecute his assailant.

The Contract Awarded.
Chattanooga, Tenn., May 16.—Gen. H. V. Boynton telegraphed from Washington that the state of New York had awarded the contract for the erection of the $50,000 monument on Look-out mountain to commemorate peace between the north and south.

M'CARTY TOOK POISON.

Died Shortly After the Hour Set For His Execution.

Lexington, Ky., May 16.—Wm. McCarty, white, aged 32, who was to have been hanged here at 8 o'clock Friday morning for the murder of his wife, Lucy Hubbard, took poison about 1 o'clock Friday morning and at the hour of execution his condition was such that Sheriff Wilkerson postponed the hanging indefinitely. The murderer, however, died at 8:22 o'clock, and his remains were turned over to the undertaker. McCarty was noticed at midnight to have what appeared to be a capsule between his fingers, and the death watch, Alexander McKeever, notified Jailer Wallace. A search was made of his cell and clothing, but nothing found. The murderer was then locked outside the cell in the hallway. An hour later he called for a drink of whisky. Ten minutes later he asked for another drink, and Jailer Wallace insisted that he take a cup of coffee, to which he agreed, and this was given him. McCarty then lay down on the couch and within a few minutes he was noticed to be breathing heavily. A doctor was summoned. He continued to sink, dying shortly after the hour set for his execution.

It is said that Death Watch McKeever and William McCarty, the dead man, were school boys together.

County Judge F. A. Bullock and County Attorney W. P. Kimball announce that, under the law, the persons who furnished McCarty the poison are guilty of murder and they will begin investigation of the case Saturday morning. Police and detective authorities have been put to work on the case. Both have suspicions and will not announce them. It is certain that McCarty did not have poison concealed when put into jail, making it necessary for some one to have supplied it. It is proposed to make the investigation exhaustive. The governor was notified and approves that course.

TRAIN WRECK AT M'HENRY.

Two Trainmen Killed and Other Persons Were Injured More or Less.

Owensboro, Ky., May 16.—As a result of a wreck of the east-bound Illinois Central fast passenger train at McHenry, 60 miles from here, Friday evening, Fireman Curry and Engineer Matthews was killed, and a mail clerk and baggagemaster badly injured. A score or more of passengers were injured more or less. The train was the New Orleans limited, running three hours late and going at a rapid speed. As she approached the depot at McHenry the engine and cars suddenly left the track. Six coaches followed the engine and tender and all rolled into the ditch. The engineer and firemen were caught under the engine and crushed to death. A special train from Central City with physicians was sent to the scene of the wreck.

COL. W. C. P. BRECKINRIDGE.

He Declines to Prosecute Jett, Charged With Marcum's Murder.

Lexington, Ky., May 16.—Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge Friday declined to appear in the prosecution of Curtis Jett, but he promised Mrs. Marcum, the widow of the murdered man, that he would advise with any attorney whom she might engage and aid her in that way.

Mrs. Marcum next called upon Chas. J. Bronson and requested that he accept the prosecution, but he also declined for the present, on the ground that he was under the care of his family physician and unable to attend to his duties. He promised her, however, that if he was able to appear in the case later, and she still needed him, he would be glad to assist her.

Bitter Oil War.

Lexington, Ky., May 16.—The jury in the case of James E. Doyle against the Standard Oil Co. and others brought in a verdict Friday afternoon in favor of the plaintiff for $2,600. Of this judgment $2,300 is against the Standard Oil Co. and $300 against C. B. Gilman, its local agent. The suit was originally instituted to recover $25,000 damages for malicious prosecution, and is an outgrowth of a bitter oil war between the rival companies doing business here. The case will be appealed.

The Last Day For Protest.

Frankfort, Ky., May 16.—The attorneys for Powers have as yet made no motion in the court of appeals for a writ prohibiting Judge Cantrill from presiding in the next trial of their client. Judge Cantrill gave them till the 14th day of the term, which will be next Tuesday, to apply for the writ, but so far there is no inclination that they intend to take advantage of the time granted.

Reports Pronounced Untrue.

St. Petersburg, May 16.—The reports of a great Jewish massacre at Tirospot, Russia, are pronounced here to be without foundation.

LIZZIE M'CORMICK.

The Woman Suspected of Sending Poisoned Whisky to Cincinnati in Jail.

HABEAS CORPUS HEARING TUESDAY

She Refuses to Accompany Detective Sweeney to Cincinnati For Trial Without Requisition Papers.

The Widow of John Ficker, Who Was Killed By Drinking the Poisonous Liquor, Swore Out a Warrant For Mrs. McCormick.

Memphis, Tenn., May 16.—Upon request of the state the habeas corpus proceedings for the release of Mrs. McCormick was continued until Tuesday, May 19. The request was made upon the ground that the requisition papers could not be secured until that time. Mrs. McCormick was taken to the Selby county jail.

Detective Al Sweeney, of Cincinnati, reached Memphis Friday morning and held a long conference with Mrs. McCormick. She told the Queen City officer that she had changed her mind and would not go to Cincinnati without requisition papers.

Chief Millikin, of Cincinnati, was so notified and the detective was ordered to stay here and await instructions. Later he sent a request to Cincinnati for the box and broken bottle to be sent to this city to complete the work here.

The arrested woman asserts her innocence, but behind her evident desire to create the appearance that she regards her arrest as no serious jeopardy to her ultimate liberty can be detected signs of the anxiety that she feels.

Edwin Pell is spending money to save her. He does not want her to go to Cincinnati and will do everything money can do to keep her here.

Detective Childs has sworn to the warrant, charging murder, here. If Mrs. McCormick is released she will be rearrested on charges of being a fugitive from justice and administering poison. There is no possible chance at this time to hold Pell. A thorough search of the Pell house is to be made after the habeas corpus trial.

Pell says both Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Nobbe, his sister-in-law, are insanely jealous and that both want to marry him. He will marry neither one, he says, but his preference is Mrs. McCormick. He says the person guilty of the poison crime should be punished, but he likes Mrs. McCormick and will stick to her. He is well to do. All Memphis is interested in the case. The people here say the woman should be sent to Cincinnati to clear herself.

Cincinnati, May 16.—The widow of John Ficker, who was killed by drinking from the contents of the broken express package, swore out a warrant for Mrs. McCormick Friday afternoon, and it will be sent along with the requisition papers. Chief Millikin received a message from Gov. Nash that he would issue requisition papers to bring Mrs. Elizabeth McCormick from Memphis to Cincinnati. It is possible that Mrs. Ficker will go to Memphis with an officer later to appear at the hearing of Mrs. McCormick.

New Developments.

Memphis, Tenn., May 16.—The police gave out vague hints Friday night of new developments and possibly a new arrest in the case of the poisoned bottle of whisky which was sent from this city to Mrs. Kate Nobbe, of Cincinnati, and in connection with which Mrs. Lizzie McCormick, of Memphis, is under arrest.

A close examination of the writing on the wrapper of the package which contained the bottle, it is thought, has given the new clue which may change the entire complexion of the case. This wrapper was brought here by the Cincinnati detective who arrived Friday morning.

It is now quite evident that Mrs. McCormick will fight to the uttermost the effort that is being made to take her to Cincinnati to stand trial in the courts of that city.

A FIERCE RACE WAR.

Whites Are Up in Arms and Whipping and Killing Negroes.

Laurel, Miss., May 16.—The fiercest kind of a race war occurred near Burns, in the northern part of Smith county, Friday. Parties in Laurel from a neighborhood near that section state that the whites are up in arms and are whipping and killing Negroes wherever they find them. Up to this writing one white man had been mortally wounded and several Negroes killed. The trouble started by a Negro leaving a crop which he had planted for white farmers.

LATE CAPTAIN MILLER.

Additional Particulars of His Sudden Death at Atlanta—One of That City's Most Highly Respected Citizens.

Brief mention was made a few days ago of the sudden death of Captain John A. Miller at his home in Atlanta, Ga. His brother-in-law, Mr. Samuel M. Hall, is in receipt of Atlanta papers giving additional particulars of Captain Miller's demise. The Atlanta Journal of May 11th says:

"It was about 6 o'clock and he had not risen when his wife who was in the room awakened him and reminded him that it was the twenty-eighth anniversary of their wedding. He replied in his usual tender manner that he knew it, and then with sadness in his tone said: 'This will not be as happy as some anniversaries we have spent,' and here he mentioned the death of little Mary Hall Raine, his grandchild, which happened last week. He was very much affected, and when Mrs. Miller went to his side to comfort him he took her hands in his and with pathetic tenderness characteristic of the noble man he was so well known to be, he said: 'But you are the same pretty little woman you were twenty-eight years ago, and I am happy in that.'"

"Mrs. Miller turned away deeply affected and started to cross the room when she heard her husband groan as though in great pain. She turned and found he was in convulsion." She hastily called her son-in-law, Jos. Raine, Jr., who was in an adjoining room. Mr. Raine ran in, but when he reached his father-in-law he saw there was no hope, that Captain Miller had passed to another world."

Editorially, the Journal pays this tribute: "No man was more generally loved. No man stood more prominently forth as a type of Atlanta citizenship. Brave and courteous at heart and in manner; energetic, well-informed, essentially liberal and progressive, Captain Miller was an exponent of that class of men who have made Atlanta what it is."

PHYSICAL CULTURE AT HAYSWOOD.

The Class Closed Year's Work With an Enjoyable Entertainment at Opera House Last Evening.

For years the course of study at Hayswood Seminary has embraced the physical culture of the pupils as well as their mental development, and the delightful entertainment at the opera house last evening demonstrated the successful and thorough work of the accomplished women in charge of this school.

It was the closing entertainment for the year of the class in physical culture, and a large audience was present and manifested by frequent applause their appreciation and approval. The various numbers on the program, embracing marches, drills, exhibitions in dumbbells, Indian club, wand and long pole exercises were given with a grace and precision that were very pleasing, and were remarkable when the age of many of the pupils is considered.

The entertainment closed with the amusing comedieta, "Dr. Frances Devine," rendered by the more advanced pupils.

The Maysville Orchestra furnished the music for the evening, and it was all that could be desired.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Case, wife of Mr. John T. Case, died Friday morning at 4 o'clock at the home of the family in Germantown. She was born January 29th, 1853, and is survived by her husband and one daughter. She had been married twenty-four years. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this morning at Germantown, Rev. J. W. Holmes, of Augusta, officiating. Burial at that place. Mrs. Case's maiden name was Hinson and she had been a member of the Baptist Church since 1868.

The Republican convention, at which will be nominated candidates for the various State offices, will be held in Louisville Wednesday, July 15th, beginning at 2 o'clock. The committee unanimously decided that the pro rata of representation should be one delegate for every 100 votes cast for McKinley in 1900, and one for each fraction of 100 votes over fifty. As about 200,000 votes were cast for McKinley in 1900 there will be at least 2,000 delegates.

CRUEL TREATMENT

Investigation Made of the Complaints by Italian Laborers in West Virginia.

REPORT TO ITALIAN AMBASSADOR

At Brickley Laborers Were Tied to a Mule to Be Dragged to Work, it is Asserted.

Their Hands Were Tied in a Grand Jury Room and This Was Done Under the Direction of a Sub-Contractor.

Washington, May 16.—Mr. Speranza, secretary of the society for the protection of Italian immigrants of New York, who has been in West Virginia for several days investigating complaints of ill treatment made by a number of Italians who went to West Virginia to work on a railroad, stopped in Washington Friday on his way back to New York and acquainted Senator Mayor des Planches, Italian ambassador, in a general way of the facts ascertained. Mr. Speranza will prepare a statement of the facts as he found them.

Speranza in all spent three weeks in various portions of West Virginia in which Italian laborers are employed, investigating complaints which have been received by the society dating as far back as January last. In the Piney creek region Mr. Speranza investigated allegations which have been brought to the attention of the Italian embassy at Washington to the effect that a number of Italian laborers who had been sent to work at railroad work near Brickley had been subjected to cruel treatment.

Mr. Speranza asserts that he has corroborative evidence to support the charges which have been made by Italian laborers. These laborers said that they left work and went to Brickley and that they were tied to a mule to be dragged to work. Speranza says the laborers' hands were tied in a grand jury room at Brickley, and that this was done under the direction of a Mr. T. C. Harmon, a sub-contractor. A justice of the peace is said to have cut the ropes. The district attorney, he added, had promised to bring the matter to the attention of the grand jury.

In other places he visited there were scattered charges of brutality to laborers engaged in railroad construction and Mr. Speranza says he has a number of affidavits to support the allegations. Mr. Speranza says the society in whose behalf he has been making the investigations will seek by publicity to aid intending immigrants and others who may arrive in this country. With the information he has gathered at hand they may be induced, he says, to avoid making contracts for labor in places where it is alleged brutalities prevail and seek localities where better conditions exist.

FROM THE OUTSIDE WORLD.

President Roosevelt Is Again Cut Off From Communication.

Wawona, Cal., May 16.—President Roosevelt for the second time since he left Washington on his present trip is cut off from communication with the outside world. He is camping in the big tree country and will remain secluded until Monday morning. His special train arrived at Raymond Friday morning before the president had finished his breakfast. A detachment of the Ninth cavalry, which is stationed at Wawona, was at the station to meet him and acted as an escort in the big tree country. As soon as the president had finished breakfast he left his car and, mounting the platform across the street made a short speech to the large crowd that had collected.

TREE CULTURE.

Experiments Will Be Made By the Government at Gardner, Kan.

Washington, May 16.—At the request of the secretary of agriculture the commissioner of the general land office has withdrawn from settlement a tract of about 90,000 acres of land in the vicinity of Gardner, Kan., for the purpose of making experiments in tree culture. Secretary Wilson expresses confidence in the success of the experiment.

Memphis, Tenn., May 16.—It may be stated on reliable information that the railroads entering Memphis have closed a deal whereby they secure a five-year lease on the cotton compresses of this city, two in number.

World's Visible Supply of Cotton.
New Orleans, May 16.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton gives the total visible as 2,872,403, of which 1,733,403 was American cotton.

Suppose We Have a Little Talk About Cotton Chain or Linen Chain and All Straw

MATTINGS

Do you know which wears best? The linen chain. No! An all-straw Matting will outwear any linen chain. We would like to prevail on customers who want long service to buy all-straw Mattings. But the patterns make them hesitate. The all-straw is less pliable in weaving than linen chain, therefore its patterns are less pronounced and showy. The all-straw is usually a solid color or a block design. But remember, though the pattern is less striking than the linen chain, the service is double and the price less.

D. HUNT & SON

BURLEY TOBACCO.

Growers Association Negotiating With Louisville Company to Handle Output.

Success of the Organization Seems Assured and This Means Better Prices for the Grower.

[Courier-Journal May 15th.]

Negotiations are in progress between the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association and the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company for an agreement which will mean the absolute supremacy of Louisville as a tobacco market, will result in the handling of the entire output of the burley tobacco district by the warehouses here and will prevent the tobacco trust from buying directly from the growers. A conference was held yesterday between the officers of the association and the officers and directors of the warehouse company, and it is said by trustworthy persons that the deal is practically certain of consummation. It is probably the largest transaction ever exploited in staple tobacco and will involve the handling of 140,000 hogsheads each year. This business has been divided between Louisville, Hopkinsville, Henderson, Clarksville, Tenn., and Cincinnati in the past; and for the last two years much of it has been bought directly from the growers by the agent of the trust. The binding of the agreement proposed yesterday means that all other factors will be eliminated except Louisville.

Under the provisions of the contract between the individual growers and the association, the association is bound to buy the entire output of each grower upon delivery at the county warehouse to be maintained by the association. The contract fixes the price for the tobacco for the period of five years, which is the life of the agreement. In case the market price should reach a higher figure than that fixed by the association, then the individual members are at liberty to sell to outside persons. In case that any member sells his crop or any part of it to any other buyer than the association at the association price or less, the grower is then held under his contract to pay a penalty of two cents a pound to the association.

It is the opinion of the most expert tobacco men in Louisville that the effort of the farmers to effect this combination will be successful, and that the association will be in a position to control the next crop of burley. If the agreement with the warehouse company is made the control will be of immense benefit to Louisville, as all of the crop will be marketed here.

The headquarters of the association is in Lexington, and a central office will be maintained there. The officers expect that the requisite number of signers to the contracts will be secured by September or October, and a permanent organization will be effected before the beginning of the season of Dec. 1st.

Investigate!

We wish to call your attention to a few special things while out on your shopping tour:

Brocadette Cloth!

The new thing for shirt waist suits very pretty, awfully stylish, and price only 5c. per yard. Had you not better investigate?

14,600 Yards of India Linen

was our first order placed some six months ago when cotton was selling for 7c. per pound, to-day cotton is 12c. per pound, but our India Linen remains at the same old price, 5c. to 35c., but the 10c., 12c. and 15c. are the big sellers. If you are in need of any, had you not better investigate?

Silk Gloves

WITH DOUBLE TIPS.

That is each finger has an extra tip. Its the scarcest article in the market. We could sell all we have wholesale to other towns, but we bought them for you. White, black, grey and mode, 50c. per pair. Investigate for you may need a pair.

We don't claim to carry everything that's made in shoes—to carry a little of everything, you must neglect your sizes because no shoe business in Maysville is large enough to carry all styles and all sizes. We confine ourselves strictly to Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes. We carry the BEST SHOE IN THE WORLD, the choicest of styles and a fit that is pleasing forty-three pair of Queen Quality Shoes sold on last Saturday is a fitting tribute to a shoe store that is not yet one year old. Queen Quality Oxfords $2.50 and $3. Queen Quality Boots $3 and $3.50.

MERZ BROS

HARD TO EXPLAIN.

If This Had Occurred Anywhere Else Than Maysville Our Readers Might Doubt It.

It's hard to explain how the public can continue to doubt in the face of such evidence. If this were published anywhere else than in Maysville; if the statement given below went the rounds of the press, readers in Boston or New Orleans might doubt it. But it's very different when the testimony given comes from a friend, perhaps a neighbor. It is public expression of a local citizen, and can be easily investigated.

Mr. Larmon Dawson, residing at 934 East Second street, says: "The quick relief from pain in my back which followed the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, proved them to possess remarkable powers. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets. From the satisfactory results obtained I can advise all in need of a kidney medicine to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.

TWELVE YEARS.

Alvin Burgess Sentenced to Penitentiary for Killing Walter Peck—Taken to Frankfort This Morning.

At Flemingsburg Friday Alvin Burgess was convicted of the murder of young Walter Peck and his punishment fixed at twelve years imprisonment in the penitentiary. Peck was shot and killed while he and a companion were playing a Halloween prank on some of their friends. The feeling was very bitter against Burgess, and he had to be removed to Maysville and then to Covington for safe keeping. On account of this feeling, Judge Harbeson passed sentence on him, and ordered him to be taken to the Frankfort pen at once.

Sheriff Collins brought Burgess and two other prisoners, Bill Willis, colored, and John Grayson to Maysville last evening and placed them in jail here until this morning when he left for Frankfort with the trio. Willis goes up for thirteen years for killing Mood Lowry, and Grayson for two years for breaking into an outbuilding.

That's What

THEY ALL SAY!

Said a gentleman who bought one of our Wool Crash Coat and Pants yesterday, "I did not expect to find as perfect fitting garment ready made as these." Upon telling him the price of the Suit he inquired if the material was all wool. It was quite difficult to make him believe it was on account of the low price we sell them for. No house in the State shows as elegant line of crashes as we do. We want you to see them.

The weather is getting right for our soft comfort giving Shirt. Try our "Faultless;" you commit a fault if you don't. It's the best dollar shirt in the world. Were there a better we would not have these. THE BEST FOR OUR PATRONS IS OUR SOLE AIM.

OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT IS BECOMING JEALOUS OF OUR SHOE DEPARTMENT.

We put Shoes in our store for a side issue. We wanted Maysville to have the reputation of selling as good Shoes as she sells Clothing. Like our Clothing we bought the "best," consequence, we are running away with the "good shoe trade" of the county and city. Our Douglas $3 and $3.50 Shoes are warranted to give satisfaction or the money back. No risk in buying Shoes here.

Total time consumed, two hours and forty minutes. Time for heating oven, thirty minutes. Actual cooking time, two hours and ten minutes. Coal used, forty-four pounds. Cost of coal at 11 cents per bushel and kindling at 7 3/10 cents. Saving in cost of coal and kindling over gas 9-15 of 1 cent.

To offset the 9-15 of 1 cent saving in actual cost of coal and kindling over gas note the time saved in doing the work, and remember that in cooking by gas you have no fire to make, no coal and ashes to carry, no dust, no dirt, no smoke. The Gas Company is selling to its consumers one of the best Gas Ranges made, the Detroit Jewel, at actual factory cost price. Samples of these Ranges are on exhibition at Langfels & Co.'s plumbing establishment on Market street. If you are interested take a look at them and investigate the price and terms at which they are being sold. Any information desired will be gladly furnished. See the Gas Company.
